

Cheyenne, citizen of Lower Sioux Indian Community. She graduated from Fond du Lac Tribal College in 2002 with an associate of arts degree. Between 2003 and 2006, she attended the University of New Mexico in Albuquerque and participated in the museum studies program at Santa Fe's Institute of American Indian Arts. In 2014 she began to manage the Lower Sioux Agency Historic Site in Morton, MN. In 2016 began serving as the tribal historic preservation officer (THPO) for Lower Sioux Indian Community in the State of Minnesota. Her hobbies include public service work with tribal and local community, traditional art practice, traveling with her teenage daughter, canoeing, hiking, reading, researching, and visiting. In 2020 Cheyenne joined Mankato State Univ. to undertake graduate studies in Anthropology.