Preservation with Purpose: Cultivating Collaborative Partnerships

Please return at your earliest convenience and no later than June 07, 2024.

NATHPO invites you to share your knowledge and experiences in Tribal historic and cultural preservation. Presenting your work in this forum is a great way to reach others who work in similar topics, get feedback and encouragement, and build partnerships to support and continue your work.

This year's theme is "Preservation with Purpose: Cultivating Collaborative Partnerships." This is a historic moment of opportunity for elevating Native voices at the highest level. We must use this time to enact lasting transformational change for Tribal historic preservation.

We appreciate your interest in presenting information at the 24th Annual NATHPO Conference. Please understand that we cannot guarantee that you or your organization will be chosen as a presenter. Presentation selections are made based upon available time, conference theme, and material content. The Board of Directors may help NATHPO staff in selecting proposals.

As always, sessions and presentations on all relevant topics are welcome. We encourage you to think about how your proposed topic is related to the conference theme. If your proposal is accepted, we will ask you to provide presentation materials in advance of the conference.

Title and Description of Your Session

The title and description should accurately reflect the content, activities, and anticipated outcomes of your session. Please be specific. We reserve the right to edit titles and descriptions for use in the conference materials. Attach additional pages if necessary.
