WHAT NATHPO'S BEEN DOING

The month since we sent our last newsletter has been busy for Team NATHPO! Here are just a few examples of what we've been up to.

Preservation Week Congressional Briefing: NATHPO Executive Director Dr. Valerie Grussing participated in a congressional briefing hosted by Preservation Action and joined by representatives from the National Conference of State Historic Preservation Officers, the National Trust for Historic Preservation, and others. Valerie stressed the need to ensure consultation with Tribes and THPOs is meaningful and not merely an exercise in "checking the box," as well as the need to give THPOs the financial support they need to adequately review all the projects being proposed and developed on their trust land or within their ancestral homelands.

Cal THPO/SHPO Summit: NATHPO Indigenization Director Stacy Laravie (Ponca) and

Operations Director Melissa Madrigal presented to the 2024 California THPO/SHPO Summit. They gave the California THPOs an update on what NATHPO has been doing and solicited feedback from them on ways we can better serve the THPO community.

Cultural Protection Resource Summit: NATHPO Executive Director Dr. Valerie Grussing and Senior Attorney for the Native American Rights Fund Wesley Furlong presented at the 17th Annual Cultural Protection Resource Summit. They discussed a wide range of issues important to Tribes and THPOs, including their work with the Biden Administration to help ensure that the rapid expansion of clean energy and infrastructure projects does not conflict with their stated support for protecting sacred places and preserving cultural heritage.

NPS NAGPRA Review Committee: NATHPO Indigenization Director Stacy Larvie (Ponca) delivered comments to the NPS NAGPRA Review Committee. Stacy spoke to NATHPO's priorities around NAGPRA, including the need for Tribes and THPOs to receive adequate financial support for repatriation work and the need to ensure there is adequate oversight over NAGPRA implementation and real accountability for failure to comply.

ACHP Panel: Pala Band of Mission Indians THPO and NATHPO Board Chair Dr. Shasta Gaughen participated in an ACHP panel discussion entitled "Disappearing Indigenous Heritage; Climate Change and Community Displacement. If you want to watch the video you can find it HERE.
